

EMERGENCY UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION EXTENDED

The Emergency Unemployment Compensation (EUC) program has been extended to January 2, 2013.

- The last payable week of EUC benefits will be the week ending December 29, 2012.
- There is no "phase-out" period for EUC payments. All EUC payments will cease when the program ends.
- For individuals who already exhausted 47 weeks of EUC, no additional weeks are available.

New EUC initial claims. Individuals must exhaust their Regular benefits with the week ending December 22, 2012 to be eligible for EUC. For individuals who apply for a new EUC claim during the week of December 24 to December 28, 2012, only one week is payable. All payments on EUC claims will end as of the week ending December 29, 2012.

Existing EUC claims. Individuals on existing EUC claims can continue to file their weekly or bi-weekly claim certifications to collect the remaining balance on their Tier up to December 29, 2012. The latest extension has no phase-out period and all benefits will end as of the week ending December 29, 2012.

On February 23, 2012, President Obama signed the Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012 which extends the Emergency Unemployment Compensation (EUC) program from March 6, 2012 to January 2, 2013. This is the eleventh piece of legislation affecting the EUC program. This new legislation extends the deadlines for filing the federal extension but does not add more weeks of unemployment benefits for those who already exhausted EUC benefits. If you have already collected 47 weeks of EUC benefits, you are not eligible for more EUC benefits in Hawaii.

	Up to May	June to August	September to December
Tier I	20 weeks	20 weeks	14 weeks
Tier II	14 weeks	14 weeks (unemployment rate must be at least 6%)	14 weeks (unemployment rate must be at least 6%)
Tier III	13 weeks	13 weeks (unemployment rate must be at least 7%)	9 weeks (unemployment rate must be at least 7%)

20 weeks of Tier I EUC. Reduced to 14 weeks effective 9/2/12

- The Supplemental Appropriations Act of 2008, signed by President Bush on June 30, 2008, provided up to 13 weeks of federally funded EUC benefits in all states to unemployed individuals who collected all regular benefits or whose benefit claims were expired. The first payable week is week ending July 12, 2008.

- On November 21, 2008, the Unemployment Compensation Extension Act of 2008 signed by President Bush expanded Tier I up to 7 additional weeks for a total of 20 weeks. The first payable week for the 7 additional weeks is week ending November 29, 2008.
- New. The Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012 reduces the number of payable weeks to 14 for individuals applying for Tier I benefits after September 2, 2012,
- You must exhaust Tier I benefits to be eligible for Tier II benefits.

14 weeks of Tier II EUC.

- The Unemployment Compensation Extension Act of 2008 enacted on November 21, 2008, also authorized a second tier of 13 additional weeks in states with high unemployment. With the total unemployment rate climbing to more than 6% in the first quarter of 2009, Hawaii triggered on to Tier II. The first payable week for Tier II is week ending May 9, 2009.
- On November 6, 2009, the Worker, Homeownership, and Business Assistance Act of 2009 signed by President Obama provided one additional week on Tier II making a total of 14 weeks payable and removed the high unemployment trigger for this level.
- New. The Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012 restored the high unemployment trigger of 6% effective June 1, 2012. Hawaii is expected to stay on Tier II.
- You must exhaust Tier II benefits to be eligible for Tier III benefits.

13 weeks of Tier III EUC. Reduced to 9 weeks effective 9/2/12.

- The Worker, Homeownership, and Business Assistance Act, effective November 8, 2009, also added a third tier of 13 additional weeks in states with a 13-week insured unemployment rate of at least 4% or a 3-month average total unemployment rate of at least 6%.
- New. The high unemployment trigger of 6% was raised to 7% effective June 1, 2012 with the Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012. Hawaii may trigger off and lose Tier III benefits in June.
- New. The Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012 reduces the number of payable weeks to 9 for individuals applying for Tier III benefits after September 2, 2012,

6 weeks of Tier IV EUC. NOT AVAILABLE IN HAWAII.

- The Worker, Homeownership, and Business Assistance Act also added a fourth tier for states with a 13-week insured unemployment rate of at least 6% or a 3-month average total unemployment rate of at least 8.5%.
- The Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012 raises the 8.5% rate to 9% effective June 1, 2012 with changes made to the number of payable weeks.
- Hawaii EUC claimants do not qualify for Tier IV as the unemployment rate for the state is below the trigger level.

Remaining Tier balances when EUC program ends. New. The last payable week on the EUC program is the week ending December 29, 2012. Thereafter, individuals will not be able to collect any remaining balances on their EUC claims or move up to the next Tier level. No EUC benefits can be paid for any week of unemployment after December 29, 2012.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR EUC?

To be eligible, individuals must meet the following requirements:

1. You must be currently unemployed, exhaust all of your Regular benefits as of the week ending December 22, 2012 and apply for EUC by December 28, 2012. The EUC program ends January 2, 2013. No new EUC applications will be accepted for weeks of unemployment ending after December 29, 2012.
2. You had a claim for regular benefits with a benefit year ending May 1, 2007 or later which has exhausted or has expired.
3. You must have no rights to regular benefits or any other compensation under federal law and not receiving benefits under the Canada unemployment law.
4. You must have one of the following in the base period of your last regular unemployment insurance claim:
 - 20 weeks of full-time insured employment or
 - Wages equal to one and one-half times your high quarter wages or
 - Wages equal to 40 times the weekly benefit amount on your last regular claim.
5. You must satisfy all eligibility requirements of the Hawaii Employment Security Law.
6. New. You must be registered in HireNet Hawaii and keep your resume posted online. You must continue to make 3 job contacts each week. You must keep a record of your job contacts and provide it to your local claims office or to staff at the Workforce Development Division (state employment service) upon request. To obtain Form UC-253, Record of Contacts Made for Work, go to <http://hawaii.gov/labor/ui/ui-quick-facts/forms>.
7. New. Effective March 26, 2012, you must attend a reemployment eligibility assessment (REA) when requested to do so. Failure to attend may result in a disqualification of benefits.
8. You must not have a disqualification or ineligibility still in effect.

HOW DO I FILE FOR EUC?

1. New EUC Claims - Exhaustees of Regular UI benefits.

For individuals who exhaust regular UI benefits, notices are being mailed out weekly with instructions to report in-person to a local claims office with your notice or to call Hawaii Tele-Claim and apply for EUC by phone. (Applications for EUC cannot be filed over the internet.) The maximum benefit amount on your new EUC claim will be 20 times your weekly benefit amount for Tier I. The last day to apply for a new EUC claim is December 28, 2012.

Individuals who exhaust regular UI benefits after December 22, 2012 will not be eligible to collect EUC.

To file new applications or to reopen EUC claims by phone:

Call Hawaii Tele-Claim (toll-free) at:

643-5555 (if you are in Hawaii) or
1-877-215-5793 (if you are out-of-state)

Sunday 9:00am to 11:00pm (HST)
Monday through Thursday 6:30 am to 11:00pm
Friday 6:30 am to 4:30 pm.
If Friday is a holiday, then Thursday's hours are 6:30am to 4:30pm.
Service not available Saturday and holidays.

To file applications for EUC in person: See Local Claim Office locations and contact information below.

2. EUC filers with existing EUC claims - Claimants who have exhausted Tier I or Tier II.

Tier I to Tier II. If you are currently filing EUC and exhaust Tier I EUC benefits, Tier II EUC benefits are payable up to the week ending December 29, 2012. Your maximum benefit amount will automatically be increased and a revised determination will be mailed to you. Continue to file your weekly or bi-weekly claim certifications.

Tier II to Tier III. If you are currently on Tier II and exhaust Tier II EUC benefits, Tier III EUC benefits are payable up to the week ending December 29, 2012. Your maximum benefit amount will be automatically increased and a revised determination will be mailed to you. Continue to file your weekly or bi-weekly claim certifications.

If you do not receive a revised determination, please report to your local claims office or call Hawaii Tele-Claim to request an extension.

To file weekly or bi-weekly EUC claim certifications by phone:

Call Hawaii Tele-Claim (toll-free) at:

643-2222 (if you are in Hawaii) or
1-877-215-5791 (if you are out-of-state)

Monday to Friday 6:30am to 11:00pm (HST)
Weekend and holidays 9:00am to 11:00pm.

To file weekly or bi-weekly EUC claim certifications by internet: Go to uiclaims.hawaii.gov.

WHY ARE SOME WEEKS PENDING EUC REVIEW AND NOT PAID?

All states are required by federal guidelines to conduct a review at the end of every calendar quarter on each EUC claim. This review is to determine whether you qualify for a new regular claim or can continue on your EUC claim. While the review is pending, continue to file your weekly or bi-weekly claim certifications. The local claims office conducts this review and will release payments after the review is done or advise you of your options regarding the continuation of EUC benefits or filing for a new regular claim. If you cannot continue on EUC and must file a new regular claim, this may result in a new lower weekly benefit amount.
